

Graphic Design Volunteer

We're on the hunt for a passionate, committed and creative graphic designer to help us to spread our message with high visual impact. You will be someone who loves working with people both staff and the community, and someone who is passionate or wants to learn about how to protect the environment and/or how to live more sustainably."

Minimum Time required:

Flexible working hours, between 9.00am – 5.00pm (4 - 8 hours per week), any day Monday-Friday

Purpose:

The Graphic Design Volunteer will provide assistance to the Marketing and Communications team by creating and updating design elements across the organisation.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Design and create brochures, flyers and posters for the marketing of ECNT projects and campaigns
- Conceptualize and design digital content of the ECNT website and social media

Minimum Requirements:

Potential volunteers will need:

- Graphic Design Skills
- Good communication skills
- Great time management and ability to meet time lines required
- Experience with web and digital design.

Support Provided:

45 min inductions about the office (the philosophy, current projects and campaigns, strategic plan), specific projects ad campaigns, office distribution and facilities, computer

You will gain the following from your volunteering:

- Useful work experience with a respected NGO (non-government organisation) that can be added to your resume
- Future references for volunteers completing a successful six-month period
- A full induction and a supportive and friendly working environment

-
- A great opportunity to expand your skills
 - Receive recognition and acknowledgement for your contribution

Training Provided:

- Induction and ongoing support.